What is a development plan?

A strategic roadmap of targets and activities that outline your fundraising and donor engagement efforts over a specific period. A living document that guides your project toward achieving its financial and sustainability goals.

SWOT Analysis

SWOT Analysis:

STRENGTHS

(internal)

Assessing strengths:

- Past successful fundraising efforts
- Relationships within your field or with funders
- Active programming
- Staff or volunteer capacity
- Growth or increased engagement

SWOT Analysis: Weaknesses (Internal)

Assessing weaknesses :

- Over representation of certain funding streams
- Do we have limited capacity?
- Can we better utilize tools or platforms?
- Can our internal systems improve or be restructured?
- Are we clear in our messaging and communication?

SWOT Analysis: Opportunities (External)

Assessing opportunities:

- Can we strengthen relationships with funders, donors, network?
- What connections or capacity does our network have?
- What are current events in our community? at the national, state, or local levels?
- Upcoming programming, events, or activities.
- Relevant dates or holidays

SWOT Analysis:

Threats

(External)

Assessing threats:

- Funder trends, shifting priorities
- Competition within your field
- Political climate
- Community challenges

Goal Setting

- Create goals for each distinct funding stream; individual gifts, foundations, grassroots funds etc.
- Consider grant renewals, multi year gifts, and earned revenue
- Consider your individual capacity and your team/network's capacity. Your goals should be ambitious but achievable.

Establishing Priorities

- How: set priorities based on your SWOT analysis, team capacity, and your project's needs.
- What : provide a detailed overview of the planned activities associated with each of your fundraising goals.
- Who: clarify who is responsible for each of the activities.
  - Include follow up, communications, and evaluation in your detailed priorities.
- When: what is the timeline for executing these priorities?

Creating Your Timeline

Your development calendar should include:

- Upcoming programming or external events
- Relevant dates, holidays or high activity months.
- Current grant reporting deadlines
- Upcoming grant application cycles or opportunities for renewals
- Donor stewardship opportunities
- Schedule evaluation periods. These plans should be living documents that we return to and that grow with us.

GIVING
TUESDAY

A large graphic for Giving Tuesday. The word "GIVING" is in a large, blue, sans-serif font, and "TUESDAY" is in a slightly smaller, blue, sans-serif font. A red heart with a white grid pattern is positioned between the two words.

Evaluating and Adapting Your Plan

Evaluation

Evaluate often. Consider the following opportunities to evaluate:

- Organizational changes.
- Staff, board, or volunteer turnover.
- Successful activities
- Stalled progress

Adapt

Be prepared to shift, adjust or adapt your plan.

- Schedule regular development check-ins.
- Adapt your plan according to political shifts, unexpected gifts, natural disasters, changing funder priorities etc.
